“ To my StepGrandmother and one of my best friends. I will never forget all of our shopping and lunches. I will never ever forget our fun times. And our Tuesday night dinners. You were the best cook. Fun times. It's too bad I moved to Florida. Tina and Brian, thanks for stepping up to the plate.

To the only grandmother I ever knew (on the Bailey side of the family). Hulda was an amazing woman. We have a very large family and she always had time time to make each and every one of us feel special. She always had candy, ice cream and loving words. I feel blessed to have been a part of her life. There will never be another like her. Fly free with the angels Hulda. 🙏
