“ I was very sorry to hear about Jackies death. I worked with Jackie at the Imlay Lounge when Terry Carrie owned it. She was always nice to work with and we got along well. Lost touch with her for awhile. Got to see Her again at Gary Glassford's last pig roast. Got a chance to catch up with what was going on with her. It was nice to see her again. Way to young. Prayers for the family.

“ Jackie, you were the best person to have as a friend. You were there so many times for me, through so many hard times with life, my health issues and of course your loving brother, we shared a lot of good, great and bad times. You will be missed by many. Try not to win all the cribbage games with Jim. Love you both.

“ To all of Jackie's Family. With heartfelt sadness I'm writing this. Remembering all the fun I had with you all years ago. You, Jean. Jim , Perry, Wanda and of course Uncle Ron, we had lots of fun together. Then I moved to Montana but we never really lost touch. Now you will be up in in Heaven with Wanda and Jim and they will be there to welcome you into their arms. Rest in Peace My Friend.
