“ Jackie was my cousin and before I was born basically my parents first child. We grew up more like sisters rather than cousins. I remember begging to go with her once she started driving, most of the time got turned down.

She had a great sense of humor and great one line come backs!
I will miss her but I know she was greeted with a lot of open arms

“ If it wasn't for Jackie and Jeff my husband would not have gotten together. Jeff, my husband and I all worked together and Jeff asked us to come over to play cards at their house, this was our first date. I can still picture it. This was about 37 years ago. The girls were babies. Our hearts go out to their family. Such a great couple!
