“ I have a ton of memories with Jim. Some of them just make me chuckle to myself and shake my head. All in a good way. Like the time we drove down to Daytona Beach and back. We went for the weekend. Jim could and did do everything he set his mind to do. From building monster trucks to building businesses. He always amazed me with his tenacity and hard work. I could make a list that would fill up pages but I will start crying too hard to finish so I will keep it short. We are lucky to have people come around in your life that you call a friend for life, they are few and far between. I was lucky to become friends with Jim back in the late 70s. Rest in peace my friend, you fought a good fight. But with you there was no other way. Till we meet again.

Margie, sincere condolences to you and the whole family.

He was a very good guy and so upbeat. Definitely a big personality and gregarious and open style. He had a wonderful family and will surely be missed.

“ Jim and I went to school together from elementary on up to high school. He always had a joke or some funny story to tell. Jim always was happy and fun to be around and one of my buddies. Elementary at ole St. Joe's was the time of our lives with all the kids growing up together and the bonds we formed then. Unfortunately we didn't see each other much at Port Huron High School we did not have any classes together. We would pass each other in the halls and talk for a few minutes as time allowed. I kept keep tabs on kids from those good old days. Port Huron High School just had their 40th Class reunion this summer and I asked about Jim then. It is with great sadness I found out about Jim's passing. He will be missed by all those who knew and loved him. He was such a great guy.

“ I was bartending at a local tavern many years ago when Jim was having a beer at the bar. The song Bye Bye Miss American Pie came on and he asked me to turn it up. He started singing it louder and louder, another guy chimed in, then another, and a lady and myself. The next thing you know the whole bar is singing the song. EVERYONE. I turned the radio off and it was just every patron singing the entire song, which is very long. It was the coolest thing ever. As I looked around at all the people, they were having the time of their life, all singing, smiling, cheering their beers up, hugging each other. It felt like I was in a movie and was the coolest thing ever. I've never seen anything like that again and probably never will. It was a once in a lifetime experience. Thank you Jim for that cool memory. It was a blast and I will think of you every time I hear that song.

Sincerely,
Margaret Werner
