“ Ellie,

I am sorry to hear about Grant. It was a blessing to have known him. We used to play a game. Think it was called Pente, and he was so good at it. Think I won maybe once. Then I had to do a portrait in French class. My guy was Degas. Grant drew it so well that the teacher knew I didn't do it. Those were fun times.

My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family during this difficult time. Hold all your memories tight until you meet again. Love you. 🙏❤️

“ Grant was such a sweet, kind man. Out of the abundance of his heart, he gave to others before they would even ask. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ I don't even know where to begin. I wanted to play, so he would have me get out my bats so we could play swords. He took me to my very first concert (Great White / Whitesnake.) Our favorite board game to play against each other was smess. He was great at chess and I wasn't. Smess, was the dummies version of chess. We enjoyed a lot of the same movies and music. He would always make time. I love and miss him more then words could ever describe. I tell myself he is with mom and dad now and doesn't feel any more pain. I'm sorry I'm selfish. I just want my brother back.
