“ I have lots of memories of Jim. All the communion parties, baptisms and the kids dressed up and running around tagging each other.... Jimmy like to untie the bow in the back of my dress so I had to run to my mother to retie it he would laugh at me.....So much fun just being kids. Then he was at the teen club I joined with my friend Terri Jones and oh he did like to tease and embarrass me there when we were all trying to be cool teenagers.
He was smart and caring and a very big teaser in my life. I smile thinking of Jim! I loved him and will miss him. Xoxoxo Therese(Teri)

Jim was a talented guitarist, Jim and his brother Steve and I played allot of music in his parents basement. Unfortunately we lost touch with each other and I regret that I miss a time to get together again a year ago with Steve and Jim. Prayers to Kathy,Steven and family.
