“ He was def. a joy to work with. I am very grateful to be able to call him my friend. Never a dull moment, never knew what smart aleck thing he was going to come up with next or what hilarious story he was going to share. Always made me laugh and put a big smile on my face. He was a wonderful man with a great big heart, he will be greatly missed. Many of prayers sent to the family for comfort and peace. May God be with You at this difficult time. Until we meet again my friend, R.I.P.

“ Jim "adopted" me and my mom during very difficult times in our lives. He shared his prized doggy, Jesse, with us. He shared his stories about life, family, work, and his cab escapades. He shared his joy, his passion for life, and his pride of family. He was a generous, kind, compassionate man, a one of a kind human being. He will never be equaled in our eyes, and will be missed eternally. Rest in Peace dear friend, we love you! Until we meet again!

“ As is the case many times over in our lives, we dont really know what we've got till its gone. It's so easy to take good friends and family for granted while they are here with us. Jim was one of those guys who was bigger than life, and full of it in more ways than one. LMAO. I believe there is a reason we cross paths with each and every person in our lives. I'm just glad Jim was one of them in mine. Like a ship that vanishes over the horizon, you are still out there. We just can't see you.

“ Never met a more compassionate and generous man. It was a joy to run into him because he always had a smile and a new joke for me. I will miss him for the rest of my days.
