

James C. Miller

September 24, 1944 - July 27, 2025

James Charles Miller, loving husband, father, brother, and friend, passed away on July 27, 2025 at 7:15 p.m. Born on September 24, 1944.

Jim leaves behind a legacy of kindness, generosity, and love.

Jim is survived by his daughter, Linda (Kellie) Brown, and his sister, Sherre Miller. He was predeceased by his beloved wife, Sherry Ann Brown, who passed away just a few weeks prior on July 6, 2025 his siblings Sandy Miller and Jean Miller.

Jim had a passion for working with metal and enjoyed spending time with loved ones playing card games like Euchre and Rummy. His kind heart and willingness to help others made him a cherished neighbor and friend to many.

Services will be private.

Arrangements in care of Jowett Funeral Home - Port Huron.

Tribute Wall

RE

“ I just want to say on behalf of myself and my sister Sandra that we are extremely sad that we lost our uncle Jimmy he was a wonderful person I wish we were the ones that were allowed to take care of him in the end we would have at least wrote him a decent obituary 😞 so I will write one here he loved his wife Sherry who proceeded him into death she passed away just 3 weeks before him he absolutely adored her and their 2 dogs Becky and max. He is survived by many extended family that loved him dearly Jimmy loved to go out scrapping and finding treasures that he loved he had a love for life he had a deep passion for animals he would do anything for them he would go without eating just to make sure his animals were fed he also loved his brother alexander miller who also proceeded him into death we will miss you uncle Jimmy you will remain in our hearts forever hope your up there in heaven with Aunt Sherry and dad looking down on us 💕💕

Rhonda Edwards - August 03, 2025 at 01:30 PM