

James L. "Jim" Walker

May 11, 1944 - May 1, 2026

James (Jim) Lee Walker was born on May 11, 1944, in Capac, Michigan, to Lewis and Irene Walker, who both preceded him in death. As one of 16 siblings, he didn't have much choice but to learn patience, toughness, and how to speak up if he wanted seconds at the dinner table.

For 32 years, Jim shared life with his wife, Laureen "Lori" (Media) Walker. Together they built a life full of moves and memories—spending many years in Florida, a chapter in Shreveport, Louisiana, and eventually making their way back to Michigan to be closer to family. No matter where they landed, home was wherever they were together.

Jim leaves behind his kids: Jodi (Scott) Feller of Fremont, Indiana; Brandon (Aimee) Walker of Ft. Myers, Florida; Michael (Becky) Wideman of Ira Township, Michigan; and Sarah (Ben) Gonsales of Shreveport, Louisiana. He was a proud grandpa to Nick (Anna) Feller, Gunnar Swander, Hayden Walker, Bryson and Brody Gonsales, and a great-grandpa to Rogan, Ryler, Rozlynn, Bentley, Ava, and Lane—all of Fremont, Indiana.

And then there was Georgie—his pup with way more energy than Jim ever claimed to have. Georgie made sure Jim stayed on his toes... or at least in his chair watching the chaos unfold.
