“ I had the pleasure of knowing Jim for about 10 years. What stood out the most was His caring ways to help. He offered to fix my granddaughter's bike and it meant so much to us. I had fun times with Jim and Denise especially when we went to the Elvis Live show at the Macomb Performing Arts venue. It was excellent. Also Sundays at church. Rest In Peace My Dear Friend. You're in God's presents now. God bless you. Love, Lyne

“ James Williford my husband of twenty nine years went home to be with the Lord on Easter Sunday, April 4th, 2021. It is so special you joined the Lord Jesus on Easter. He welcomed you in His loving arms. Second Corinthians 5:8 says "absent from the body is present with the Lord". I know you are happy in heaven, I can almost hear you say "wait till you see what it's really like up here". I know the angels are having a party that you entered into His home, now your forever home too. I love you, and miss you each day. I have peace knowing you are now at peace. Have SO much more to share, to say when I get my emotions together, at another time. Forever in my Heart. Love, Denise❤️❤️❤️

My dear brother. You may be gone from our world, but I know you're enjoying the company of mom, dad, Debbie and all the other family and friends who have passed on. I was always so proud of my big brother. You will always be in my thoughts and I certainly will miss the times we shared. I'm glad you and I were always close as I have lots of fun memories!!Life goes on for us, but I look forward to the day we are all reunited in Heaven😊🙏❤️ I love you and miss you every day!

“ Jim, You will be sorely missed by Ron, Cara, and me. You were always so warm and friendly with a kooky little way of doing things. We shared tons of laughs and wisdom over the years. You will never be forgotten because you gave us all a lot to reminisce over and laugh about, like the time you came over in the morning with that hot rod car and cleaned it for hours until you finally told us you were kind of hiding the fact that you bought it or the times you would try to take my dogs on the boat with you, while you would almost lose your balance trying to get them in with you.. Ha, you were too funny. We love you Jim and will keep your memory always alive.

To your family, we are so sorry for your loss. Losing a good soul is something that you can never fully get over. The pain will lessen over time though and with that lessening will come the memories you will always cherish.

Denise, We are only a phone call away, any time of the day if you need anything at all.

With sympathy,

“ I met Jim 19 years ago. From the first day I met him he became an inspiration to me, helping me on my road to a better life. His experience, strength and hope even through the tough times showed me there was a better way to live. His faith showed me God had a plan for me. I am blessed to have known him and thankful he was my friend. He will be missed and lovingly remembered.

“ Jim, was a great man who loved his family with working in the yard, garden, and much more in life! He was well known as the Frito Lay guy; “Frito Jim” who enjoyed his work, his friends, and made continued strides to healing with much support surrounding him. Denise & Jim were great together and will always have a special place in my heart! Miss you Jim! ❤️

“ My condolences to the Williford family..I worked with Jim at Frito-Lay from 1980-2018. Whenever there was a market tour we always went to Jim's stores. There was nobody and I mean nobody who could merchandise a store like Jim. Jim really took pride in his work. People with that talent and ability do not come around that often. He would come into my office and tell me about the family and about his walk with the Lord. He will be missed. Mark Kreger Frito-Lay

What a beautiful memory
Thank you so much for sharing. Yes, he took much pride in his work at frito lay. He was the first to get to the docks to load his truck. He was up and gone out of the house by 3 20 a.m. each day. The hardest working person I know, my beloved husband Frito Jim.

“ My dad was so much that I honestly cannot put it into words. There's not a single person that would ever have anything bad to say about him. He was silly, kind, goofy, sincere....a damn hard worker, and spent his entire life working or striving to help his family and friends in any way he could. My dad never asked for anything, ever. He only asked for love. He was loved dearly, and I know he felt it as he passed. I know because I was there. Dad, I miss you but happy you are at peace.

“ When I was 15 yrs old my mom and dad got divorced....it was a sad time for us 6 kids and my mom got custody of my 2 younger brothers. Because I was of age, I got to decide who to live with and I chose my dad so he wouldn't be alone. We gained a closeness then and a bond for life. He came to visit me when I was around 24 yrs old and said he wrote me a poem. He handed it to me and said some private words....but the part when he said “you chose me” and thanked me, was the most special. That piece of paper meant more to me than any gift he's given me over my 46 yrs.....and I will cherish it forever. I love you Dad, I'll miss you and the long talks we always had.

“ I first met Jim at Christian Life Church when he came up for prayer. We prayed for his family and had a nice fellowship. I had the opportunity to pray with him and Denise several times and got to know him better. He had a warm spirit and I enjoyed the fellowship that we had. I pray for Jim's wife and family for comfort at this difficult time. I know that I will be seeing Jim again on the other side. In heaven. Love Bill
