An Irish Blessing

May the road rise up to meet you. May the wind be always at your back.

May the sun shine warm upon your face; the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

“ My darling friend, Jane, was one of purest spirits and friends I have had.

I am honored we remained friends so long!! She had the best smile ever and when I thought of her, I saw that smile and I could hear it in her voice when we spoke. It now is the brightest star shining down into the universe. We shared so many great, fun and silly times. I was so glad she had the sign in her Anchor Bay Dr window, “Seamstress”, as I was driving by with Nicole in the kiddie seat behind me on my yellow bike! 48 years ago !! I’m so glad I stopped. We clicked immediately. 🤗

Jane was so unassuming, and humble about her brilliant talents! She was a gifted artist and seamstress. She loved all the arts. She was well read. She had a great laugh that brought fun to any event. She loved all things Irish and cats.

Many days we spent in either of our ABD homes with all you kids in the yard, in boats, swimming, floating, or at the ropes. Great times !! We kept up our friendship.

Good friends though all the years, fears and tears.

I LOVE that girl!

Peace to you and your spirit dearest Jane!! 😊☀️🌟🙏💕

“ Jane loved her family and missed Tom. They are together now. I always enjoyed touching base with Jane whether on messenger, Facebook or occasionally by phone. She was a great employee and last time we talked we shared some good memories and laughs. Always loved her notes at Christmas. Was wondering what happened this year - now I understand. Jane, enjoy your journey to Tom and know I'll be remembering you in heaven with your cats. After all, what would heaven be without our kitties and puppies.
