“ Grandma,
I miss you so much and I love you so much! I will always cherish all of our happy memories and hold the love you gave me close to my heart. You had the biggest heart and always knew how to make me laugh, put a smile on my face, and cheer me up. You left a voicemail on my phone almost a year ago, I listen to it all the time to hear your voice and your laugh. I love you forever Grandma, rest in peace.

“ Janet,
We met as teenagers and I always knew you were the girl for me. You gave me two beautiful children and a life time of wonderful memories. You always put a smile on your face even when your health was failing you and you were not feeling well. You doted on our children and grand children and wished them all the best in life. You will be missed more than you will ever know. Not only did I lose a loving wife but more importantly by best friend. Till we meet again, rest in peace, I will always love you Janet.

“ Mom,
I miss you so damn much! You always knew how to make me feel better when I was sad or something was wrong. You had a heart of gold, and always wanted the best for your kids and family. You were taken away from us to soon. I love you Mom, until we meet again.

“ Janet, you will be missed daily. Your sweetness, with always a kind word. Also, your feistiness if needed. (I never saw this side, but you hear stories)! but you come to mind when this past July a caterpillar was attached to my house. We watched it daily. First the caterpillar stage, then the chrysalis, then he broke free.
You have broken free from your chrysalis and are free to fly and watch over your loved ones.
You and your family, Rick, Heather, Ricky and the grandchildren will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Janet was a kind and generous soul. In a world that tested her faith, she always wished the best for everyone and was willing to lend a hand of support. For those that knew and loved her, we know we have lost a good soldier in the army of love. Now, it's up to us to carry on.
