“ Janet was not just a friend, she was also my sister. We always joked growing up the reason we had to be born to different Mom’s was because God knew that the 2 of us was more than 1 mom could handle. My first memory is when I went to her house after church and her dad told me that he eats little girls for dinner. I might have been 9-10 at that time. We shared boy crush stories and many giggles. My favorite memories are simply the times that our families spent time together for dinners and family fun. Janet had a servants heart and she didn’t hesitate to step up and take care of anyone, especially Momma And Dad. Her hugs were the best and her laughter filled your heart. I will forever recall making her say “Terlot” which was the toilet . She always put that “R” in there. I love you Sis and I hope you know how much you will be missed. Our friendship will be forever cherished. Till we meet again. Fly high little angel. Give mom and Dad a big hug for me.

“ Me and Janet met when she was 13, I was 16, even though there were sometimes, years we were not in contact, we always ended up back in each other's lives.💖 I always loved Janet, 💜 and always will, nothing ever changed that and nothing ever will, she was not just my friend, she was like a sister to me. On this earth, I am going to miss her so much, she remains in my heart, and my thoughts💔🥹 But what helps with the grieving, is the fact that I know one day, we will be together again in heaven, but this time for eternity!!! This is how God gives me the comfort to get through these heartaches, and He will do this for anyone who receives.... Jesus Be With Everyone💖 Love & Prayers To All... “ Janet was not just my sister, she was my best friend. We had a bond that could not be broken. She had a heart that was bigger than anyone I know. She would help when she could. I will miss my phone calls every day. No more pain, no more seizures. A new body. I will see you again one day. Love you to the moon and back.

“ She was my tv buddy! My funniest memory was of Janet and Destiny making cookies! It took 3 batches for them be edible! First batch were too thin and slide off the pan into the oven, second batch was burned but the 3rd batch was real good. They kept at it till they turned out good! Lol!
