“ Dearest Janet,
I am blessed to have known you and to have shared many wonderfully amazing conversations and laughs. I really miss you. I will miss your beautiful presence in this world. You were a strong soul and you will continue to live on in our hearts every day. You have left a legacy behind. We are all blessed to have had you in our lives. You will always be thought of and remembered. I love you very much. My absolute deepest condolences and prayers are with your family. And Vince, Lori and Mark - I wish there was something I could do to take this pain away. I love you all very much.
Love you always,
Kim

“ Dear Janet, for 57 years you've been the best big sister a young sister could ever know you're concern for my well being all through the years has not gone unappreciated and shall be missed during my remaining days. Now you can breath freely without concern, know that we shall always keep your love in our hearts until we can all meet again. I suppose there's a bingo hall somewhere that has you, mom, grandma and Uncle Leonard hollering. . . BINGO! Love you always, Rene'
