

Mrs. Jean K. Olivo

September 5, 1921 - August 17, 2013

Jean K. Olivo, 91, of Fair Haven, passed away on August 17, 2013 in Rachel's Corner Adult Foster Care Home.

She was born on September 5, 1921 in Pennsylvania, daughter of the late Robert and Blanche Walp.

Jean married Jack Decker and he preceded her in death. She then married Tony Olivo and he passed away in 2007.

She loved and enjoyed living life to the fullest.

Jean is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Barry and Linda Decker of Fair Haven; grandson, Heath (Kristen) Decker of St. Clair Shores; grandson, Jonathon (Kristy) Decker of Clinton Twp.; great-grandchildren: Jackson, Reagan, Addison and Natalie Decker and a brother and sister-in-law, Donald and Terri Walp of Pennsylvania.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Thelma Barnes.

Per Jean's request there will be no services.

Cremation arrangements by Jowett Funeral Home, 57737 Gratiot @ 26 ½ Mile Road, New Haven.

Tribute Wall

JD

“ My Mom, from throwing grounders to me in the front yard, to teaching her first grandchild to swim after major surgery. I will miss your strength and bravery, your love and support, hugs and kisses and great sense of humor. Mom I will still be asking for help and advice, watch over me. I will miss you Mom He will swallow up death forever. The Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces.....ISAIAH 25:8

J. Barry Decker - August 20, 2013 at 07:16 AM

JF

She was a genuine nice person. And always fun to talk to.

jim findlay - August 20, 2013 at 10:20 AM

RB

Aunt Jean was indeed a fun, loving, caring, and beautiful woman. I will always remember her great sense of humor, her patience, her creativity, and her grace. Thinking of her now makes me smile and it always will.

With great fondness, your niece, Robin

Robin Barnes - August 20, 2013 at 06:30 PM