“ A beautiful person inside and out. She was the kindest, sweetest woman I've ever known. She went through life with a beautiful outlook, always optimistic. She had 8 children, and loved them all equally and generously. I'm the second to the youngest and was so privileged to have her as a mother. She taught me how to be a better son, a better man, a better person and a better husband. Anyone who had an opportunity to meet her was instantly moved by her demeanor and remarkable ability to make you a better person than you were before you knew her. I love you mom, and miss speaking to you. I hope to see you again soon in paradise one day.....

“ Jeanette was my precious, beloved sister. She was God’s blessing to all those she knew and came into contact with in any way. Her love for others was endless. A year ago our other sister passed away. These two women were a gift to all of us. I was the little sister but over the years became very close and best friends. My love to her children and my brother who will miss her as I deeply will.
