“ My cuzn Jeffrey lived a hard life but had a big heart always. He loved his family an he was loyal to his friend's. He also had a love for animals. I can remember him as a kid always saying something like what ma they followed me home ! Pointing to stray dog ! He liked to catch frogs by the creek in the old neighborhood. He was always counting up stuff in his head like you spent how much yet he was also a sharp dresser. I know cause he told me I was a good cook an what else can you make Becky ? He was like a tiny sponge when little he absorbed everything you would say so you had to watch what you said because peat an repeat he would do.

Was looking forward to cooking more meals for him an spending sometime with him getting to know him in the now. Try to make up for the missed time.

Go rest high Jeff on that mountain top an be reunited with all of our loved ones especially your dear sweet father an brother Michael I know you missed them so. Know that you are loved an always have been know that you are missed an will always be held close to our hearts. Know that God has a place for you an everything you went through doesn't matter anymore rest your mind rest your soul you have a clean slate. I love you cuz I pray that you know this.

Prayers of strength an healing sent to all that knew an loved him. May we all find comfort in the memories we have of him. An also remember to pray for strength an healing an comfort love support for my Aunt Pam an cuz Dianna ! Much love to you both !

Love always cuzn

“ We went on vacation (you, your Mom, Jason, Troy and myself) "Uncle Gary" had made you 3 boys a sling shot. You and Jason were regular marks men by the time we left up North. On that same vacation you and Jason road the 4 wheeler. Your Mom and I were fixing lunch. All of a sudden the whole damm cabin shook, Troy came running yelling "they have killed themselves". Pam and I ran out to see you and Jason standing beside the 4 wheeler, yelling WE COULDN'T GET IT STOPPED so we ran into the house. After we discovered you were not hurt or killed. It turned out to be pretty funny.

I Love you Jeffery. It breaks my heart that you won't here with us anymore. Rest In Peace my dear sweet "Nephew". God Bless and Comfort those of us who mourn.

Love Always, "Aunt Jean & Uncle Gary"
