“ It's been nearly 3 weeks. I keep thinking you're there and it hits me that you're not. I hope you are watching over us because with all that's going on we really could use a guardian angel. No funny business either, dad! I love and miss you.

Thank you. He would greatly appreciate it. He dedicated over 4 decades to Ford and the UAW and made many friends and brothers along the way. Nothing eases our pain or our mother's (their 48th wedding anniversary passed June 8th 2020 and they have been together 50 years July 4th 2020) but hearing this has made her smile with joy that he touched so many people that he worked with over the years even at Romeo Engine where he retired from only 4 years ago. My mother and I thank you all from the bottom of our hearts. 🙏

“ I love you, Dad. You worked hard your whole life to provide for your wife, kids, grandkids, family and friends who needed help. It was the honor and privilege of my life to be your daughter. I'm proud that we had the last few years and that you and mom finally had time to focus solely on your health, yourselves and your own well-being. You deserve to rest, to be forever stress and pain free. I'll always love you with all that is me. I'll always remember you and all that you were in life. I promise to cherish every moment past, good and bad and to always keep your memory alive in the future. The kids and I miss you so deeply. Nothing will ever replace you or take away the pain of you no longer being here. I just want you to know how much you truly mean to us all and that I pray you know that. Until we meet again, Dad. I love you.

It will be okay Liam, grandpa loved all his grandkids more than life itself. You'll never forget him but it gets easier in time. He will want you all to have the best and most successful life you can and to make something of yourselves. That's all he wanted for all of us. Make him proud and forge your own path in life and follow it.
