

Jennifer Ann Brisbois

July 30, 1971 - October 28, 2025

Jennifer Ann Brisbois, affectionately known as "Jabbin Jenn," passed away peacefully on October 28, 2025, at the age of 54.

Born and raised in Imlay City, Michigan, Jennifer later made her home in Port Huron, where she built a life filled with creativity, love, and connection. A talented tattoo artist and gifted creator, her artistic ability extended across many mediums. Her work reflected her deep appreciation for beauty, individuality, and expression.

Jennifer will be remembered for her loving and caring nature. She was devoted to her family, friends, and those whose lives she touched through her art and kindness.

She is survived by her life partner, Kevin Enos; daughter, Haley Gottschalk (husband Buster Olsen); sons, Kurtis Brisbois, Mark Brisbois, Andi Brisbois, and Cody Enos; mother, Wendy Gottschalk; sisters, Jessica Gottschalk (Paul Zimmer) and Nichole Gottschalk; and uncle, Wayne Snyder. She was a proud and loving grandmother to Christian W. Stone, Spencer W. Olsen, Björn T. Enos, and Killan D. Enos, who brought her endless joy and pride.

Jennifer was preceded in death by her father, James L. Gottschalk, grandmother, Wanda Snyder, and grandfather, Charles "Wes" Snyder. She will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and all whose lives were brightened by her warmth and creativity.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date to honor Jennifer's memory and the love she shared with all who knew her.

Arrangements in care of Jowett Port Huron Funeral Home.

“ Hey Jen,
My son still has the picture you drew hanging up in his bedroom. You made getting tattoos and art an amazing experience. I'm going to miss the friendship we had and the art we had planned. Please rest easy.
