“ Jeremy we are so sad to hear about Jennifer. We saw what a kind person she was when we would deliver wood to your home. Always adding to her animal collection and always so pleasant to talk to. Please know you are in our thoughts and prayers. Dennis & Cindy Lancour

“ My heart is broken not only for me but the entire family on both sides. I met Jenny in the late 90's when she moved across the street, we instantly became best friends and were together every day for ten years or more. We were always at one or another's house and our boys were the same age so they were growing up like Brothers. We had bonfires every night, we shopped together, camped together, went out together we even joined a bowling league together in 2002 we did it all and we always had fun. We felt like family. Then I moved and she came over every weekend for bonfires and Nathan practically lived at my house and is still Best Friends with my Son. She finally met the Man of her Dreams, Jeremy (thank you for loving my friend and making her so happy) They moved away to 2/3 different cities landing in Wetmore. I always knew where she was but jobs and miles kept us apart even though we did stay in touch. Jenny was a beautiful person inside and out, a wonderful Daughter, Mother, Sister and best friend. She will be forever loved and missed
