“ I met you many years ago when Chuck and I first started dating. A friendship developed through that meeting. When dealer permits weren't available yet, I would go down to the records indow with anywhere from 6-22 guns to be registered. Back then there were two doorways to the counter. I knew while I was there I would hear "pst Michelle, what do you have today" knowing that we did a fun show over the weekend and you would come in and handle and look at them all. Or you would come by the apartment or old pawn shop. Always great conversations with you. You were truly an officer of the badge. I'm going to miss you. Thank you for your service
