“ Jerry was very conscientious about his neighborhood especially the roads.

I recall one time he was at a town hall meeting and he spoke very elegantly

“ I recall the time that me and my son use his backyard for a shooting range, as Jerry taught my son how to shoot... being I have no experience.. that's challenging as it was to have conversations with Jerry.. he was very to himself and quiet. He will definitely be missed and his neighborhood... and he had a very fond care of cats.. which she actually had quite a few he fed everyday..
