“ To my cousin Jerry, we were not far apart in age and we were close as kids. We would bump in to one another at Grandpa Walkers place up north. You use to do silly things back then. I wish that we would have seen one another more after we grew up. I hope you are at peace and I hope to see you again someday. From your cousin Tom.

“ Jerry, It was a pleasure knowing you. We met at Mueller Brass when you were in the casting shop, and I was doing my rounds as a security guard on midnight shift. You were always laughing and having a good time. Life dealt you a lot of health problems, but you handled everything with the "I can handle this" attitude. You were a great man. Though we only knew each other mostly at work, I considered myself to be a friend of yours Jerry you will be missed. Melissa we are thinking of you and the family at this time, our thoughts and prayers are with you. RIP Jerry.

“ RIP Jay. This just doesn't seem real! We met as kids when you moved into the neighborhood. I remember all those times we used to sneak out the back alley to go get slushies, smoke cigs and cruise town. And when you came and rescued us from the drive-in in flint. You were there for me when my father passed. I will miss runnin into u at the store and our lil chats. You always made the day a lil brighter!! Till we meet again my friend - say hello to my dad 😊
