“ Jesse

I don't know where to Begin. I spent almost three years with you that started on a whim. We have many intense memories rolled into three years. I . I know you of all people would understand why I did not come to say goodbye to you in this life I was living with you and hear how you are going some where else to never return. It frightened me, it flipped my whole world as I knew it upside down. I was confused and my heart was broken.

I would of stood alone, I was weak and didn't know how to do it. I apologize! Rest in peace angel now till we meet again.

“ I am deeply saddened at the news I received only today of Jesse's death. I first met him this past summer when he was painting my rental property. He was such a nice guy, respectful, joyful... even under stress and seemed like a good friend to all his workers. They always spoke well of him and I could see that he cared for each one of them and did what he could to take care of them. He had a loving heart and spoke always of his daughter and grandchildren with pride and joy. He was rarely on time but he would eventually make an appearance. In spite of this annoyance and a few other of his quirks, I always liked him. I'll always remember his smile and his kindness to me and those I saw him with. Rest in peace, Jesse and God bless your family and friends who mourn losing you.

“ Jesse...he was the one who stuck up for me and watched out for me because I was the new kid at school. He knew what that felt like and was a good friend who would had a big heart. Even though we have not seen each other for a very long time, he will always be special to me. I'm so very sorry for your loss.

“ Man Brother, I simply cannot believe you are no longer with us. I knew few hearts as big as yours. I will miss working with you, having you as my friend and brother. Be at peace my friend, and watch over us all, as you always did.

“ Painter was there for me when my world caved in on me. He was making sure I was okay and safe. Thankful for his words telling me I have to get right. Those words snapped me out of lowest point of life. I promise you Jesse I will stay strong and stay right. Gonna miss you my friend.
