I'm sorry for not reacting out to anyone. I did not know this existed. It was very hard on the family ( Dave, my father and I ) . We've been trying figure things out with my dad's dementia and straightening out their finances. We figured if we told a few people that the word would get out. Sorry you were left out of the loop

Only knowing Joan & Ed for a short time as new neighbors and spending time having memorable conversations like last Saturday! Joan always waved as we passed in the driveway,we will certainly miss you and your smile was always a kind greeting?
