“ Gene was a friend to many, and he was a very sharp newspaper and business man ... he also knew how to have fun, and to help others have a great time. He was a huge asset to my newspaper career, and thanks to him I was fortunate to have the opportunity to learn, grow and have a 49-year run in the business. Wishing Pat and his whole family comfort and blessings as you move forward with life and the memories of a man who had a "life well lived."

“ Sorry for your loss. I delivered his mail for years ago and loved to chat with him out in the garage. I still have a cigar box from him!

“ My Uncle Gene was a man who was always “there”. I know he had things to say, but like many men of that generation, was also a quiet presence at family gatherings...he was a welcoming host at his home and on his boat, and was a generous, behind-the-scenes supporter of many. He will be missed. Hugs to the family. Beth Caverly (favorite niece!)

“ My thought and prayers go to you all. Mr. Chambers was always such a kind man to us neighborhood kids. My favorite memory is when he helped Scott and I build go carts to race down Allouez. Eric Jackson
