“ My some of my most cherished memories are all the Diamond Rio concerts we went to. Diamond Rio is and always will be my favorite band. Grandpa and I traveled all over Michigan and even into Canada. Just so we could go backstage and hand with the band. We went backstage so frequently the band knew us. I'm so grateful for those memories. I mean who gets to meet their musical heros with their hero of a Grandpa. He was an incredible soul that just hooked ya. Everyone loved him so much, he touched so many lives I miss him every second. But he's with Grandma and Max and that makes me happy for him.

“ That picture by the fireplace shows that constant smile that goes along with that laugh of his that we can hear right now. A gentle soul who loved everybody and everybody loved him. He was a true, true friend to all and his choice was to be happy every day. How we will miss him. Love, Aunt Bunny

My adopted father. Chris and I were friends from early high school and continue to this day. I was an adopted son into the family. John was one of the kindest, most likable persons I have ever known. He always was pleasant to be around, was quick with a joke to make you smile, and made you feel at home. He was industrious and inventive. I'm so glad that I was privileged to know him.
