“ It was a blessing to meet John (Grandpa Z) years ago. The first time Tricia and Jill introduced me to him, we played board games ("let's play Aggravation! It won't cost you anything!") and he made us laugh for hours, telling us stories about his childhood and his family. I'm happy to have met him. Your family is so lucky to have had such a wonderful father, grandfather, uncle and friend. Keeping your family in my thoughts and prayers.

“ *Uncle John, So many memories. From getting my teeth pulled (your crooked viselike fingers), to your haircuts(buzz cuts),trying to take me fishing(I always fed the fish), learning how to swim "sink or swim!" , and drinking your PBR's(with the boys at the train bridge).
Always a good time at Uncle John's! You'll be missed,but never forgotten!

“ my most vivid memory of mr. zimmerman was when Dave and Rhonda go married , mr. z and my dad(stu coleman) had their picture taken at the reception with their pockets of the tuxedoes hanging out like they were broke from the expenses of the wedding. the funny part was all of the money that was in his pockets was on the table next to him in the picture. he was a great man and i know he will be missed greatly. prayers to all the family.

“ Our most sincere condolences to the family of John Zimmerman. We were honored to have known John for the past 15 years as our son is married to his grand-daughter, Tricia Kooiker. John was an amazing man, warm and friendly in nature and a smile that would light the room. No matter where we would see John and his beautiful side-kick, Dorothy, we were always greeted with a beautiful smile and a warm hug. Our hearts are heavy for you all.....he will surely be missed but not forgotten. Rest in peace John.
