“ A sad day to say goodbye to my cousin Joe Adamo. It's hard to see him go but I am left with many fond memories of our time growing up. The many parties and family gatherings we all we all enjoyed. Card games, golf matches at chandler park, backyard basketball, outdoor hockey and basement pool and ping pong games will always bring a smile to my face. Joe A.fought a tough battle for the last few years but he was always upbeat and smiling. Rosalie, Amy, Ants and the kids Rose and Phil and the rest of the family, we are all feeling the hurt in his passing but Joe A. will live on in our hearts and minds.....REST IN PEACE JOE A..... YOUR COUSIN J.C.....

Thank you so much for sharing this. It couldn't have been said better. Joe had many fond memories with you and always told me stories about the two of you growing up.
