

Joseph Gawryk

July 17, 1943 - July 4, 2024

Joe Gawryk sadly passed on July 4, 2024, at the age of 80. Joe was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, and brother who will be missed dearly. He is predeceased by his brother Dennis James Gawryk, and his parents Charles and Helen Gawryk. Joe is survived by his wife, Alice Gawryk, his daughters Cynthia Jowett and Sandra Herbert, his granddaughters Emily, Morgan, and Erin, his siblings John Gawryk, Elizabeth Waun, and Mary Tengler and many nieces, nephews, and extended family. Joe was a loving man who worked as an electrician and who loved the outdoors. He loved fishing, boating, kayaking, hunting, and riding his motorcycle. He was a kind and fair man, who was always up for playing a game with his family whether it be videogames, lawn games, or board games. Joe was also an artist who loved to paint and dabbled in drawing. Joe was an avid tinkerer, he liked to take everything apart to see how it works and put it back together. Some of his favorite things to tinker with were motorcycles and cars. He was also an eclectic collector of curios and art, always ready to share the latest rare find he had discovered.
