“ To Jon, Jesse and all other family members: I had the opportunity to get to know Joe through his friend Jean McNaughton. What a pleasure it was to spend time with him. He was never without a joke to get us all laughing, and he amazed me with his ability to work with the dogs that I know who came into his life including my Lexy. I am so sorry for your loss, but what memories you have of him. I look forward to the service in the spring to hear some of the many stories I am sure you will be sharing. Please know you are all in my thoughts. Gloria Henry

“ I will never forget the time Joe and I went canoeing. We left his car at the beginning and mine at the end. When we finished the long canoe ride, I realized I'd locked my car keys in his car (at the beginning). We had to call my very elderly mother to pick us up. We laughed about it for years.

I'm so glad we were such good friends for all these years. I will miss him dearly.
