“ I will always remember Joyce's beautiful smile. Her warm, friendly and caring personality was so endearing. Always had a good word for everyone.

She and I both share our love for baking and the entire family looked forward to her wonderful cookies. And when she sent them unexpectedly it was a very special treat.

Joyce - the perfect wife for Jim. And it showed by their love and protection of each other. They were able to give each other space to do their own thing but always loved each other . And so many times they went together either by car or plane. They had lots of adventures together.

Brother I know you miss her deeply and I pray that your memories will be a comfort in the days to come.

Love you, Jane

“ So sad to hear of Joyce passing. My sincere condolences Jim.....The one thing I remember, is when Joyce drove onto a sidewalk and I think maybe she hit a tree trying to avoid hitting a dog, and you said Joyce was hellbent on hitting that dog, she even drove onto the sidewalk trying to hit it.... 🦋🦋🦋🦋

“ I'm sure our Washington Junior High yearbooks have messages saying we will never forget each other, and I won't ever forget Joyce. We met in seventh grade, and sometimes we would walk to my house for lunch. Being in band together also made us part of a very close group all the way through school. We were both in the brass section. Joyce played cornet (trumpet), and while I started out on cornet, I was switched to french horn. I last saw Joyce at a Friday night 50th PHHS reunion gathering at Port Huron Yacht Club in 2014. I was standing in line, waiting to sign in, and up the stairs behind me came Joyce and Jim! It was like no time had passed in that 50 years. Joyce was a quiet, calm, and cherished friend, despite the time and distance. Warm wishes and peace to Jim and her family.
