“ I met Joyce many many years ago. And from the very first time I met her, I fell in love with her. She could talk your ear off. She loved everybody. She never had a bad word to say about anybody. She was one of a kind. She loved God and she would talk about God. Her family, her friends to know her was to love her. She loved everybody. I never heard her say a bad word about anybody. She knew my adopted parent Tom and Helen Fox she always had a great garden. She was a great cook and a great friend. My mom and dad loved her dearly and she was one of a kind. I remember when I was a kid she first come over to our house on Pearl Street and she had a whole bunch of candy. My mom and dad said no. It was right around dinner time and she snuck the candy and made sure we had the candy and we ate the candy before she left and we laughed about it. My mom and dad did not get mad. They just laughed. They said that's just Joyce. She always loved kids. She loved everybody. I will miss her. My thoughts and prayers go to her her husband, her kids, her grandkids great-grandkids and all of her other family members. We called her the candy lady. My thoughts and prayers are with you all as you go through this most difficult time. Just know she's with God now and I would have loved to been there when she met God because she deserved it. She was a blessing here on Earth and I know she's a blessing up there in heaven because God don't make too many people like her. She had a heart full of gold down here and she's got a heart full of gold up there in heaven. I will miss her but I know one day I will get to see her on the other side. Rest in Paradise candy lady. I will always love you and I will always miss you my friend. See you on the other side. You will be missed. Love you my friend

“ Joyce (my grandma) loved to talk. She loved talking to her family and also the community. She could talk to anyone. Any person she would come across she would be welcoming towards. She also loved the Lord and would talk about how good he was how good he was to all of us. She taught me how to sew, showed me what a beautiful garden looks like, most of all she showed me how to love and be compassionate. She was always so positive, no matter the circumstances. She was patient and kind. She loved life and most of all she loved her family. She loved each and every one of us.
