“ Mt. Castillo was my godfather and I couldn't have asked for a more caring person than him. He spoiled me like I was one of his own. Every time I would go home to Port Huron to moms I would always see him doing something around his house. He was always working but, it was his favorite past time. He would always say " this is how I stay young". We will miss him greatly.

“ It is hard to pick out just one memory when there are so many, I have been so fortunate to share with this wonderful man.. So choosing from them all, the Easter dances we used to go to with Grandma and Grandpa Castillo stands out, we had so much fun and Grandma Castillo would spend a yr saving the eggs...While along with Grandpa we would dance around in a circle and smash them on everyone's head!!! Love and prayers to the family ... Rest in peace Mr C...
