“ Judi, its hard for me to grasp that you will not be at the table for our "cousins" lunches, Will definitely think of you when enjoying a Maurice Salad and of course Bread Pudding at the White Horse Inn! We shared the love of food!! Good memories of bowling (back in the day) at Frontier Lanes and going to SeaBreeze afterwards. I will miss your wit, honesty, laughter and friendship. We will always be "outlaw cousins". My love and hugs to Joe, Julie, Jody, Aaren and the Schefke and Frederick families. Till we meet again. Carol Queen

“ My God mother, my aunt Judi. I'll hold all my memories of your smile, the one that always shined so bright and always followed with a big hug and kiss when we seen each other. , that laugh I can still her it when I seen her last going to the tea house with my aunt Judi, my mom and cuz Dawn. Dawn and aunt Judi always made me laugh with the funny faces and the little inside jokes at the table. and The warm love she always knew how to send no matter how far away we lived. I remember she learned how to wright in calligraphy and wrote my name on my birthday card. I thought that was so cool. I had to learn how to wright just like her. She always did the coolest things. I love the Santa that would walk on the floor and ring his bell every Christmas. She made the best Enchiladas ever. let not forget the best strawberry jello at Christmas time. Aunt Judi your spirit will live forever in my heart. I love you.
