“ Words simply cannot express the beautiful presence Judy had in the Rankin household. Thoughtful, funny, kind, beautiful and as much as she liked to talk, she was both inquisitive and a good listener as well; honestly she was the best friend my Mom could have, and a very dear friend to me as well. I don't remember a time when Judy was not in my life, as large as her family was she always insisted we come in and look at the rolls of film she had developed, and although I knew a few, she was so descriptive and animated when showing the photos I felt as though I knew everyone by the time I was done. Her love for her family was immense, especially David, the sun rose and set with him. Roger and Judy raised him so well, and he in turn turned out to be a wonderful young man, there was never any doubt she had every right to be proud of him. I am so glad to have so many memories of Judy during our trips to Chicago, Traverse City and Ireland, her inhibitions always led to some sort of crazy discussion with locals or added-color to our adventures. The Rankin family is going to miss her more than words can say, but we are comforted in knowing she is with the Lord, can be her loving parents, and has to battle no more.

Love,

The Rankin Family

“ Dear Dave and Roger: Our family has such wonderful memories of Judy. Your family and ours were brought together by Notre Dame, especially our mutual love for Irish football, and by Justin and Dave's friendship and adventures as roommates at ND. We have spent so many wonderful times with Judy and both of you -- including those games in Chicago and Texas. Judy always treated our sons as if they were her own, and that warmth and love is something our family will always cherish. It was wonderful when she and you came to Justin's wedding in Dallas. Judy was so full of life and good cheer and warmth toward everyone. Even with our tears of sadness, we will always smile when we think of her, because she just naturally brought humor and joy to everyone. We will always miss her terribly, but her memory is a part of our own family's memory and always will be. We hope to see you both before long, so we can express our condolences personally for the passing of a wonderful and faithful lady. You are in our prayers.

With Love,
