“ Aunt Judy was like no other. She always had a smile on her face. So soft spoken and a complete joy to be around. I loved going on bus trip's with her and Uncle Howard, who called me a good luck charm. And Bingo the few times we went together. I remember staying at their house on Smith's Creek Rd. so many years ago. These thing's I will treasure, always. I love you and will miss you greatly. I'm here for you Uncle Howard anyway I can be.
