“ I remember every time I would go and visit she would tend to always have spaghetti that night. that was always our running joke after that. Aunt Karen will be greatly missed. she had a heart of gold and one of the most God spirited person I know. My thoughts and prayers for my Uncle Randy, David and Nathan and his family. May they have peace knowing she's dancing and singing in the sky with her family that went before her. God Bless you all. Love you's
