

Kaye Rampp-Block

June 16, 1964 - October 2, 2017

Kaye Rampp-Block, 53, of Port Huron, passed away peacefully on October 2, 2017 at McLaren Port Huron Hospital with her best friend, Elissa, by her side. She was born on June 16, 1964, daughter of the late Louis Rampp and Dolores Fernandez-Rampp.

Kaye grew up in Algonac, graduating from Algonac High School. While growing up Kaye loved horses and was an accomplished equestrian. In 1992 she graduated from St. Clair County Community College as a Licensed Practical Nurse. Kaye served hundreds of patients at Mercy Hospital of Port Huron throughout her career until her own health issues caused her to retire. In 1993 Kaye married Joe Block. They lived together in the Port Huron area for nearly 20 years before Joe's untimely death in 2013

Kaye will always be remembered for her hearty laugh and quick wit.

She was preceded in death by her father, Louis; mother, Dolores; sister, Debbie; brother, Bill and her husband, Joe.

Kaye is survived by her best friend, Elissa and her family; sister-in-law, Karen; brothers-in-law, Bud and Mike (Judy); aunt, Lois Fernandez and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Cremation arrangements are in care of Jowett Funeral Home, 1634 Lapeer Ave. @ 17th Street, Port Huron.

“ Kaye I will always cherish the memories we made together as children. Always playing the game of LIFE, watching Batman after school, sliding down your stairs on our rumps, and trying to warm stray cats in the cold winter months. You are missed and I am thankful that you are no longer suffering. Love you cousin, Lisa
