“ Kelli was such a sweet, sweet woman. Her kind soul and warm, welcoming presence was felt by everyone who was lucky enough to know her. The news of her passing is absolutely heartbreaking.

I will never forget our Sunday evenings, and the way she lit up when she talked about William with such adoration. Or all the times she would giggle with rosy cheeks when she said, "Okay, just one more MOAB." when I tried to convince her to stay just a little longer.

The world lost an incredible light and I am so, so sorry for your loss. Thinking of you William and hope you find solace in knowing that Kelli will never be forgotten by those whose hearts she touched.

“ *William, and family;
Words cannot express the sadness I have with the passing of Kellie, My memories of her will be in-grained forever in my mind, my deepest condolence, Brian*

I am so sad to hear about Kelli. I have known Kelli since we were 2 years old. We were best of friends growing up. We had so many good times together. I haven't seen Kelli in a long time. I'm so sad her life ended in this way. I will keep her family in my prayers.

My friend, I miss. I will always remember the text message she sent me on Thanksgiving day about our friendship. We shared a lot and I'm so sorry she's gone. My deepest sympathy is felt for Bill and her family.

To my Peeps Kelli, the woman I Loved more than anyone could amagine. She was so beautiful in all ways, I know she is with the Lord now, and she will be missed forever by me, her Captain William, which is what she called me everyday. Someday I will be with her again, but that is up to the Lord to make that discussion.

*I want to thank everyone who had a part of Kelli, I know she will be missed by all you to. Merry Christmas Kelli, my Peeps Forever.
Love Forever, William Ketelhut*
