“ Ken was not my Father. He was my Mom's husband and that is it. He made our childhood horrible and I did not agree to have my name or my children's name associated with this man. Suzette Verbeke

*Suzette,
I'm truly sorry you feel that way. I hope one day you can find forgiveness in your heart and even if you can't, I hope you are able to heal from the trauma you endured as a child. With that being said, people do change and Ken made a positive impression and impact on many people, many of the children, including myself, my children and my grandchildren, over the past 15 years that I have known him. It seems you and your children's names have been removed. I hope you find comfort in that. May Ken rest in peace from here on out.
— His beloved daughter by choice Kristen Oscarson*

“ You started as our crossing guard and became our Papa. It was always a joy to have morning coffee with you before you started your crossing guard duties. Landon would always wave hi while walking to school. We will cherish our countless dinners and memories of you. RIP Papa Ken!
