“ Sad to hear about Ken!! He was a good person to be around always. Your family were great neighbors on Woodland Dr. I grew up playing little league ball and playing hockey with him what a fun time. We both served in Vietnam so rest in peace Mr Hero!!! Rod Jarvis

“ I had the privilege to work with Ken for a couple of years. I joined the Goodwill team in 2019 and Ken was the first person to strike up friendly conversation with me. We spent many breaks talking poker & politics which I deeply miss. God Bless

“ I worked with Ken for the past 20 years and will always admire his leadership and commitment to the mission of Goodwill Industries of St Clair County. He loved his job and took pride in the results of each day's work. he was selfless and always put the interest of others ahead of his own. His example of a life well lived will be missed.
