“ Awe Kensy, We are heartbroken that you had to go so soon. We don't want to believe it true! You crashed into our lives and we fell in love with you as though you were another son. We still laugh about the Ninja Turtle bandages. Always respectful, friendly and positive your upbeat personality was not only kind but very funny. You were always a pleasure to have around. We loved how you had a drive to get things done which included striving and achieving things you loved doing most...Cooking being one. We are very proud of you. We'll miss the fishing trips. Your genuine kindness pegged you as having a heart of gold and being a kind soul and there was nothing you could do to hide that. It grieves us awfully to let you go. We will always love you as our other son. See you in Heaven "Krash", Love Mahh and Pops Sparks
