“Just yesterday morning they let me know you were gone..... but I always thought I'd see you again...”

*In my head and in my heart, you were my sweet, kind, funny, handsome older brother, even if you never knew, because I never knew how to tell you. My childhood is filled with memories of forts you & Billy and Judy & I built, epic Monopoly games that we left set up for weeks at a time, playing pool in our basement (I still have the pool table), and laughing at the crazy stories our Moms made up together to entertain us. Hug all our people for me, until I can see you all again.
Love always, Jean-Ann Hansel*
