“ I was 17 years old when I moved in to help with the kids while Dee and Kevin worked rotating schedules to provide for their family. So many fond memories of race car tracks on Christmas Eve to waking up and finding 3000 Trivia Pursuit cards all over the dining room... I might add coloring on the walls. I suppose they got their creative impulses from Aunt Debbie? Fast forward...Christmas, Easters, trick or treating...New Years Eve poker nights..and before you know it, I'm watching you guys have Josh... then I'm taking photographs at Amanda & Bart and Melissa and Kevin's weddings. So many years of kinship and friendship...we have laughed, cried, agreed and disagreed but always remained family. I was so thankful that despite being sick and struggling, Kevin put on a suit and came to Kori's wedding. You guys will never know how much that meant to me...and it was so nice to visit and break bread together. I miss the Fall days when Dee was geared up in her big cheese hat and Packers gear and Kevin in his Lions hook-up the banter over who would go to bed that night the victor! Man he was a loyal fan to the end. I will miss Kevin's laugh when you pulled one over on someone he got such a kick out of that. Above all of this, I have gratitude in my heart. Things were not always sunshine and rainbows, life is hard, being parents is hard, survival is hard..losing parents is hard..but you guys never gave up on one another. Kevin will always be my brother n law....Dee you will always be my sister n law...I love you and I am so sad and sorry for the loss of your forever guy. To all of Kevin's children - I've always loved you and I always will..I will forever be Aunt Debbie...and I am so sorry to you and your partners for your loss...I have become an expert in grief come see me or talk to me...I am always open for a call or visit from any of you day or night. To the grandchildren...life gets busy some of you don't know me well, but I know something about you all. Your Papa loved you all so very much. You can see it every picture, and I know you all know it in your hearts. I'm so sorry for your loss and sadness. My love and condolences to all of the Debrowsky and Murphy extended family and friends for your loss. May we all lean on one another to find healing and peace. <3
