“ Kevin, my mind has not grasped this yet it was so unexpected. You are my brother and I miss you and love you. You would do anything for me and when I would say no you got mad and hung up me. Now my sugar brother is no longer here. I enjoyed our dinners at my house with you. Then watch you sleep after you ate. Anyone that you knew you would do anything for them. Now may you rest in peace and just enjoy walking around and being with family. Love you Kevin you will always have a special place in my heart.
