Hi I love and miss grandpa, but he is in a better place and no longer suffering so I'm sad that he is gone, but also happy that he is happy. And I promise I will remember him as the funny grandpa in the recliner chair with his oldies cap on, and drinking (you guessed it) Pepsi, messing and joking around with us. When he tried to scare us with the hook man in the barn legend, and then tickled us. But I will also remember him in the hospital, not that he was weak or pale, but how strong he was, and how much of an inspiration he was to our family. So was our grandma Debbie for hanging in there with him, keeping him going.. I will love you forever grandpa

“ Kim worked for me at the foundry, and he was the most dedicated employee. I could always count on him to be there, and run the guard shack and keep me updated. I promoted him to supervisor, and later he came to work at asset, although not under me I gave him an outstanding reference. He will be missed and thought of very highly by me. May he rip as he join the lord and angels. I will miss you Kim!
