

Kimberly A. Doty

June 28, 1961 - January 11, 2016

Kimberly A. Doty, 54, of Chesterfield, passed away on January 11, 2016, unexpectedly.

She was born on June 28, 1961, in Detroit.

Kimberly was a volunteer at the Blue Water Area Humane Society. She enjoyed reading and loved her two dogs, Cocoa and Champ. Also, cherished her time with family and friends. She was a loving mother, daughter, sister and aunt, who will be missed by many.

She is survived by her four sons, Kyle Doty of Kimball, Justin Doty of Clinton Township, Joshua Doty of Kimball, and Eric Doty of Kimball, her parents, Donald and Dorothy Allen of Marysville, sister, Mary Dishaw of Chesterfield, and nephew Paul Dishaw of Texas.

A Celebration of Kimberly's Life will be held on Saturday, January 23, 2016 from 1:00pm - 6:00pm in the VFW Hall - 35011 23 Mile Road, New Baltimore.

Arrangements by Jowett Funeral Home, 57737 Gratiot, New Haven

Memorial Tributes can be made to the Blue Water Area Humane Society.

Tired of the words "time heals", time will never heal this empty silence called my heart.
The dream of hearing that you are with that man, safety in his arms...an angel in heaven. I really do not care where they say you are. I want you here. Here. Here with me. I want to see you. Feel you, touch you. Hear you, speak to you, and just sit in silence with you. It doesn't matter one bit any longer knowing you are at Disney land or on a cruise...or in heaven.
I am so tired of hearing that you are with me always. That you are watching over me. I can't see a spirit or touch a ghost. I do not want you as a ghost or angel. I want you as a friend to have fun and love. I want you alive and breathing. I want to hear your heartbeat and see your chest rising with each breath.
I am so tired of trying to make a life with. A life without you.

“💕 Today is my Beautiful big Sisters Birthday💕

I say this today.....

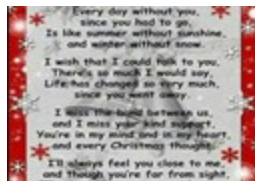

Am I supposed to celebrate today? Impossible, my dear Sis is not here to celebrate. Once a special day, it's simply one of an empty day. There's no celebration, none of any kind. anymore. Am I bitter, oh you bet. I'm happy my Beautiful Big Sis was born, but this day, well I can no longer celebrate. I love you my Sissy💕 Forever and Ever, missing you more each day!💔 Love, your Lil' Sis💕 I hope she's not been forgotten by others....

“ Years ago when our kids were small Kim and I met on the TY Beanie Babies board. Eventually we connected offline and in March of 2000 she came to Texas and stayed with me. Everyone loved her and we were in touch for awhile. Over time we lost touch and for some reason today she popped into my mind. I am so distressed to hear about her passing. Mary, she talked about you, her parents and her boys with so much love. The boys were her world. I have some photos around here of her visit and will add them when I locate them. Deepest sympathies from the Mairena Family-Sue, Guillermo and Rachel of Bedford Texas

Sue, I remember very well when my Sis went to Texas. Thank You so much for sharing your memories of my Sis. Knowing she touched another's heart is comforting, it truly means so much to me! Thank You Sue!🌹

Mary, Kim popped into my mind again. How are you doing?

Sue Mairena - March 04, 2019 at 01:21 PM

Sue, I cannot find the words to tell you how much it means to me to see your comment, It warms my heart to see that shes not been forgotten by everyone. Sadly Ive realized just soon someone has been forgotten. I Will not lie and tell you I am doing well, or I'm doing better. No Sue, I am not good at all. I really don't know Who actually came up with the old saying that after time the pain eases up or it gets easier as each day passes, or all that, I just call it like it is crap. Maybe it's just me, but that seem can't be farther from the truth. Oh no it doesn't get easier. There are no stages and grief, it has no expiration date, there are no steps in grieving, oh no no, as for myself it is quite the opposite. I'm hollow. Never again will I feel whole. The pain only intensifies. Im honest, well I suppose I could be viewed as brutally honest. Sue, Thank you . Thank you so much, so so much!!! It's heartbreaking sometimes to realize that, and it's quite clear, my sissy has so quickly been forgotten about. But then again, how many people truly do you see true beauty in the world? The beautiful soul no longer here!👁️👁️💧💧 thank you for remembering Sue! Love, Mary

“❤️ We took the pictures off the wall, and the curtains you just hung, I couldn't help but imagine the beauty you would've done. As I stood in the backyard, took one last look at the apple tree, and the spot we had picked out where the clothesline was to be.. As I walked out the yard, I shut the gate from behind, I rang the doorbell one last time. As tears streamed down my face, I thought I heard you call my name, but when I turned around, I once again knew that lonesomeness of our family never to be the same ❤️ I Love You my Big Sis, and I Miss You too!! “ 🌹🐾 Hello, I am Kim's Lil' Sis, I want to express my gratitude to all of you who have shared memories of my Sis! As for me to share memories of my Big Sis and I, well I'd have to go back 50 years! Her entire life she has always been true to herself, as well as true to others! There are so many of you, whom I do not know, but if y'all were ok with my Sis, well then y'all are ok with me!! I must give my love and gratitude to those at the 'The Blue Water Humane Society,' for acknowledging all her hard work and dedication, and let's not forget all the fun, happy times you all shared! I know she loved the activities, such as the Santa pictures with the 4-legged furbabies. Halloween events, and so many more special moments she spent doing good for ALL those furbabies, and most of all, those forgotten Furbabies!! She had a lot of fun with y'all, the stories she told with a smile on her face! Thank You! Bless the 'The Blue Water Humane Sociey' for bringing Cocoa and Champ together with my Sis, there are no words that could express how much love and the forever-unbreakable bond they three shared!! Thank All of those who donated, in her honor, to the Blue Water Humane Society...Hugs to you all! Love Kim's Lil' Sis, Mary 🌹🐾 I cannot end this without saying "Thank You to ALL" for your thoughts and care for our family, there are no words to tell you what it means to us ALL!!...Peace ☮️

“ What a shock!!! We chatted a week before she passed. She was very happy in her new house and to be back in Chesterfield. She always had a smile and a way of making the best out of every situation. She was always putting everyone else first in her life, the boys(now Men) and her family. She was so proud of them and her sister Mary as well. She will always have a soft spot in my heart and my prayers are with you all who are closest to her.

🌹 Bobbie, It was very nice of you to respond! You have already helped Bobbie. You helped my Big Sis find happiness. You helped her get that 'house.' She took that 'house' and she created a 'Home!' That was a dream come true for her!! I cannot Thank You enough! There is one thing I can think of that you may be able to do... Continue helping others find their houses, so they too can turn those 'houses' into their 'Homes.' That's what you can do, continue being a part of helping others dreams come true!! Thank You Bobbie, thank You so very much for your dedication! With Love, Kim's Lil' Sis ❤️
