“Kristie and I went to High School together. We weren't that close but would run into each other from time to time & through FB.

When I went through my battle with breast cancer she brought over a meal for my family. When I say meal, I mean meal! She brought us enough to feed a small army. Plus dessert & a goody basket & movie. It was so sweet and still makes me cry. She also brought me a breast cancer wreath a while later. All while she was dealing with her health issues.

God bless you, Kristie. Rest in peace and watch over all that love you. Hugs & prayers to all your family & friends.
