“ I have so many memories that Kurt is in that I can't share them all....growing up in Black River was wonderful and one memory that seems to pop in my head alot is us kids in the church parking lot for a "dance" and doing that darn YMCA dance...lol...and of course Kurt was there. Riding our bikes, swimming, playing football across from Rasche's store, playing all over town, going to the mall so he and Jessica could hang out...I could go on for awhile. I believe I have some childhood pictures but unfortunately they're in a storage unit in WV and I'm in Ohio so I can't access them. My heart goes out to all of you, big hugs and yes tears at the loss of Kurt at such a young age. :(
